

K-12 Expected Student Outcomes

LEARN

Demonstrate the abilities of an independent, life-long learner

Demonstrate proficiency in all content areas as per course descriptions according to their individual, God-given abilities

Demonstrate the ability to employ creativity and critical thinking skills collaboratively to solve problems and innovate

LOVE

Understand the truth of the Gospel and choose to commit to a personal relationship with Christ

Understand and apply a biblical worldview and how to study the word of God

Form the heart of a disciple, who will love and serve others

LEAD

Display the Fruit of the Spirit in daily life and in service to others

Demonstrate well-developed communication and conflict resolution skills

Demonstrate stewardship and generosity in time, finances, and resources

Display the character of a servant leader who desires to glorify God

Early Education Expected Student Outcomes

LEARN

Demonstrate a desire/ willingness to learn, engage, and be creative independently and within group settings through all developmental domains, including Social, Emotional, Physical, Critical Thinking, Language Development, and Spirituality.

Demonstrate age-appropriate behavior, emotions, resilience, and learning.

LOVE

Develop an awareness that they are created by God, loved by God, and through relationship with Him are able to share His love with others.

LEAD

Exhibit Christ-like character and lovingkindness in relationships and responsibility.

DCA MISSION:

From a biblical worldview and in partnership with Christian parents, our mission is to educate the mind and train the heart of each student to serve the world for the glory of Christ.